CLOVIS ART GUILD

The Clovis Art Guild members are artists, would-be artists and persons interested in the arts.

Meetings are held the second Wednesday of each month, February through October. Meetings are held at the Veterans Memorial Building, 5th and Hughes in Clovis, beginning at 7 p.m. We do not have meetings November through January.

The program at each meeting consists of either a demonstration by a well-known artists, a paint-along, figure drawing with a live model, or an evening of critiques of members's art work. Members bring in their paintings for the Pick of the Month, during the meetings members vote and one will be chosen pick of the month. At the end of the year, all the paintings from Pick of the Month are voted on for Pick of the Year.

CAG has three shows each year, the Old West Show in the Spring, the Symphony in Color Show in the Fall and the Miniature art Show in December.

Each Month a Newsletter is sent out to each member, with pertinent information, a review of the previous program and an announcement of next month's program.
